Sajjangarh

Saheliyon Ki Bari

(Royal Maids Garden)

A beautiful garden with gushing fountains, dappled walking lanes and flower beds originally built for the 48 royal maidens to be a part of the dowry of the princess of Mewar.

Timing: 0800 Hrs- 1800 Hrs

Maharana Pratap Memorial

Erected atop Moti Magri (pearl Mount) near fateh sagar lake, is an impressive equestrian bronze statue of the gallant Rajput hero Maharana Pratap.

Sajjangarh Fort

The Summer resort, Monsoon palace of the Maharajas, atop a hill overlooking all the lakes was built by maharana Sajjan Singh towards the end of the 19th century.

Timing: 0800 Hrs-1800 Hrs.

Entry charges for Indian Rs. 10, Foreigner Rs. 80, Car Rs. 65, Auto Rs. 25, Two Wheeler Rs. 10

Chittorgarh Fort

The fort is on a 280-hectare site on the top of a 180-metre-high hill, which rises abruptly from the surrounding plain. There are many palaces within the fort like Rana Kumbha Palace, Fateh Prakash Palace, Tower of Victory and Padmini's Palace, which are a must see for the tourists. This hilltop fortress of Chittorgarh epitomizes the romantic and doomed ideal of Rajput chivalry.

The distance to Chittorgarh is 115 kilometers and takes about 2 hours to reach the destination. The entire visit to fort takes 1 to 1 ½ hour. The fort is open between 0900 – 1700 hours

Khumbhalgarh Fort

Located 80 kms north of Udaipur in the wilderness, Kumbhalgarh is the second most important citadel after Chittorgarh in the Mewar region. Cradled in the Aravali Ranges the fort was built in the 15th century by Rana Kumbha. Because of its inaccessibility and hostile topography the fort had remained un-conquered.

It also served the rulers of Mewar as a refuge in times of strife. The fort also served as refuge to the baby king Udai of Mewar. It is also of sentimental significance as it is the birthplace of Mewar's legendary King Maharana Partap.

The journey to the fort take 2 hours and it is advisable to wear flat or sport shoes as there is lot of steps to reach at the top of the Fort.
