Maidens Hotel is one of Delhi's oldest hotels, built in 1903. Recognized as a Heritage building, the hotel has retained its colonial charm and architecture. Our spacious rooms with high ceilings are unique when compared to the box-sized rooms of modern hotels. Set amidst eight acres of lush gardens & shady trees, it escapes the noise of the main city, yet remains within easy access to some of the most magnificent Mughal monuments and famous shopping center Chandni Chowk, with its quaint bazaars and meandering lanes.

RESTAURANTS AND BAR

The Curzon Room, named after the British Viceroy Lord Curzon, serves a selection of Indian and European cuisines. The Restaurant showcases over 70 photographs from the archives that adorn the walls and take you on a nostalgic trip of the Raj in India, in the early 1900s. Also on offer is a daily dinner buffet featuring a multi-cuisine menu.

The Garden Terrace features indoor as well as al-fresco dining and overlooks lush green central courtyard. The restaurant serves buffet breakfast and an ala carte selection of Indian and Western cuisines for lunch and dinner.

The Cavalry Bar serves cocktails, beverages and a variety of snacks in an intimate setting and lounge music.
